

Sinclair~~You or no network should be allowed to be this bias. I feel like I'm in a communist country. If you are so inclined to run the anti-kerry story just because he told the truth thirty years ago and you have a vendetta gainst him. Wakeup!... Bush had a vendetta gainst Saddam because he had a hit out on his daddy. Does that make it right? If Bush can't run on his merits then we are in big trouble, aren't we? My brother was in Nam...twice. Once for his country and once because he couldn't handle life here at home after Nam. There was no ticker tape parade for vets from Nam. why? because we didn't belong there anymore then we belong in Iraq. whoever bombs America should pay.....like Osama. But when did we become the bullies? It's bullies like you who make the innocents pay for your screwed-up views. You're a sick outfit and you are sick people who need therapy. If you show it then follow up with Fahrenheit911 or something with more credible dates.paper trails etc. Not a bunch of stories edited to fit your sicko memories. From a long long long time ago. Talk about the screw ups of today stupid. Where in the hell is Osama.....oh yeah I forgot he's Saudi. Oh Gee lets let his buddies look for him.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
